"Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man" (Ecclesiastes 12:13b)

Words of Admonition for all Preachers

As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do (1 Timothy 1:3,4).

And now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils: speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats. which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth (1 Timothy 4:1-3).

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine (2 Timothy 3:16-4:2; emphasis in all of the above scripture references mine - bhl).

To the preachers of the world: are you preaching the gospel of Christ (Romans 1:16), or are you preaching another gospel, as was being done among the Galatians (Galatians 1:6-9)? Readers, by comparing the preaching one hears with the Word of God, everyone can know if the preacher is preaching the truth of the gospel of Christ, or some other gospel which cannot save us!
